COURAGE HOMES JAVA

FROM THE infill gables and soaring entry pavilion to the indoor-outdoor dining sala at the rear the home echoes with the feel of Thailand. The home flows seamlessly between casual and formal living areas, with a series of spaces that can be used for a range of activities at different times in a family’s day.

The use of glass and an abundance of timber doors and shutters in this split level home make the transition from inside to outside almost uninterrupted.
